All unwanted posts or blogs are sent here. You have an option to choose whether to permanently delete a post or restore a post. It is quite similar to the recycle/trash bin.

The number displayed here is the number of comments linked to this post or blog. If a post or a blog has been sent to the trash tab, ALL COMMENTS ARE ALSO DELETED. If a post or a blog from the trash tab has been restored, ALL COMMENTS ON THAT BLOG WILL ALSO BE RESTORED.

Viewing Statistics

The screenshot shows a WordPress dashboard for a site named "Sports Show". The top navigation bar includes the site name, a refresh button, a comment icon, and a "New" button. On the right, the user "Howdy, admin" is logged in. A sidebar on the left displays statistics: "User Online: 1", "Today Visit: 7", "Yesterday visit: 0", and "Total Visit: 8". A red box highlights a note: "The statistics can be viewed here in the site itself once the administrator has been logged in." The main content area features a large banner for "The All Sports Show" with a photo of a baseball player and text describing the show's reach. To the right of the banner is a "Join Our Sports Community" form with fields for name, email, and message, and a "Submit Form" button.
